			Non-School Team Training
		Outdoor Demonstration	Level I Course
Target Participants		Students of Primary 4 or above and secondary school students	Secondary school students (aged 12 or above)
Outline		Coaches will lead students to experience hiking and enjoy the beautiful scenery of Hong Kong countryside. Concepts such as protection of country parks and “Leave No Trace” will be learned and put into practice. Students who finish the trip may pay for the issuance of “Mountain Walk Attendance Certificate” from the HKCMCU.	The programme outline is designed according to the contents of HKCMCU’s Level I mountain craft training course. The programme includes lecture and hiking practice. As the routes are easy, students can enjoy the fun of hiking and learn about safety knowledge at the same time. Students will learn about map reading, grid coordinates, leading with the use of a compass, basic concept of wilderness first aid, co-operation between people seeking for help and rescuers, etc. Course objectives: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Develop an interest in the sport of mountain walk;</li> <li>2. Teach basic knowledge, skills and safety concepts;</li> <li>3. Develop proper hiking attitude and encourage participants to protect the environment.</li> </ol>
